FROM THE GM'S DESK

Adrian Pavese

Our reserves women kicked off finals last Saturday unfortunately bowing out for 2022. Huge congratulations Kenny, Harvs and the team who endured a tough year with injuries and illness so to even qualify for the finals was a tremendous effort by all involved.

So lets preview week one of the finals for the remaining teams:

Rising Stars - This final against the Pies should be a belter as there is nothing between the two teams. QBN will be without Kellar & Gilbert on state duties, however this hasn't hurt the young cubs as yet with plenty of great talent in the squad led by Spinks, Armstrong, Banic and Silver to name a few. Tip - Tigers by 12

Men's Reserves - Sunday will see the lads field their strongest squad in 2022 with elimination not an option. It is currently 2 wins to 1 in favour of the Demons however with some good ins the lads will be keen to square the ledger and progress. Skipper Wilba has been a standout while James Bolton and Will Taylor will also be key players in this game. Tip - Tigers by 8

Men's 1sts - The Pies are the only team to defeat the Tigers in 2022 and coming off a much needed week off only add to the squads desire to turn the tables in the qualifier. Some key players are back and with Swan, Pollock & Bowyer being in great touch this could go either way, so brace yourself for a cracking contest!

Women's 1sts - Eastlake stands in front of the Tigerettes as they try and progress further in 2022. A narrow loss last week has the team in the knockout semi but their form at the back end of the year has been stella. Hamilton, Strama, Grounds and Flakelar have been on fire recently and with the backline holding strong, this game should be a beauty! Tip - Tigers by 13
