100 Years of Tigers Footy!

"OUR HISTORY FROM 1925 - BLAST FROM THE PAST MOMENTS"

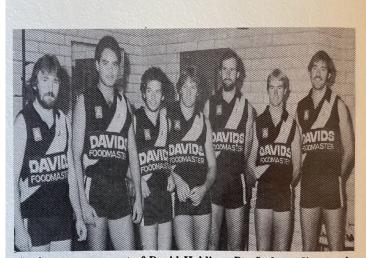

researched by 100 Year Committee Member Josie Stephinson.

#20 For the first time ever, in 1983, the Queanbeyan Junior AFL club had a team in every age group, a record number of 10 teams.

Coaching clinics were conducted in all Queanbeyan schools with the club awarded the Inaugural Prime Ministers trophy, a perpetual award donated by the Collingwood Supporters group for the most progressive junior club in administration, promotion, and development of Australian Football for 1983.

Unfortunately the first-grade team failed to move beyond the preliminary final, however the year was a memorable one and included all 4 senior grades upsetting Eastlake on a cold wet Saturday afternoon at home.

This result surprised all the critics and the most ardent Queanbeyan supporters. Coach Peter Williamson was the hero on the day with a diving mark on the siren and a six-point kick to win the first-grade match.

At the announcement of David Holdings Pty Ltd, trading as the club's major sponsor in 1983, the following prominent players display the Tigers' new jumpers: Jim Black, Glen Coburn, Peter Harrington, Tony Wynd, Geoff Harrold, Rodney Daniher and coach Peter Williamson.

Another highlight was the honour of being the first team to defeat Ainslie in 30 matches. The Tricolours were missing players due to representative matches however the Tigers were fielding many injuries, and the win was full of merit.

Tony Wynd became the Tigers 4th Mulrooney medallist, becoming one of the youngest players to win this prestigious award, and to top it off the Tigers won the 'Best Decorated Table' at the Presentation.
