About

The Tigers club was established in 1983 and is the home of the Tigers Australian Rules football teams, both senior and junior. We are the only licensed premises in the south of Queanbeyan being located in the Karabar precinct.

The club offers a variety of entertainment opportunities and facilities for its members and guests. We encourage you to visit other pages on our website to see what is on offer. If you would like to receive regular updates via SMS contact the office on (02)6297 8888.

Amongst other amenities, the club has recently introduced Wi-Fi for members so that they can keep in touch with their friends using social media or for those people who just want to keep up to date with news reports or explore the web. You will find the Wi-Fi Terms & Conditions of Use set out in the 'Reports' tab.

Our Club is housed in modern premises with up to date gaming facilities, TAB, Keno, an attractive Bistro serving delicious meals. Keep an eye out for the wide range of promotional events and activities that are conducted or subscribe to get SMS posts to hear of these first hand. Tell your friends and encourage them to become members.

AULICH

Principle Partner & Oval Naming Rights - 7th Year of Partnership

About

“Confidence is born of competence”

When facing a potentially life-changing situation, such as an accident, workplace injury or serious criminal charge, finding the right law firm to navigate the legal process and make sure you're properly protected is the most important decision you'll make.

At Aulich we have a proud track record of getting results for our clients across civil and criminal law. We specialise in everything from drink driving and drugs charges to personal injury, construction and building disputes, shareholder and partner conflicts, sexual assault matters and family violence.

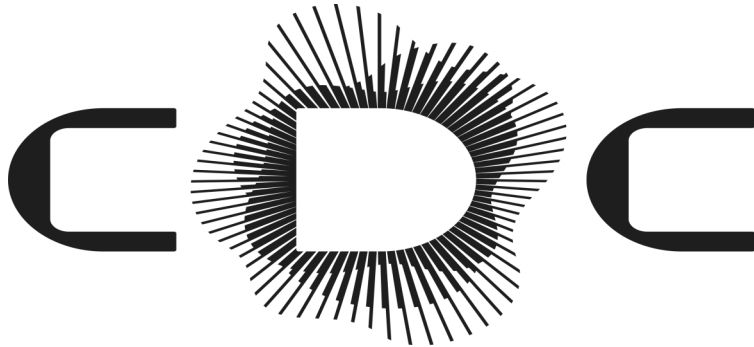

Our success in criminal practice, in particular, has earned us a reputation as Canberra's most fearless client advocate.

The key to our success over the past 15 years? Quite simply, it's treating our clients with respect, not spruiking discount services and delivering cookie-cutter solutions.

If you need empathy, understanding and a calm and considered advocate who can get you the best possible outcome in your civil or criminal law matter, contact us today.

National Capital Toyota

Long luncheon Corporate Partner - 8th Year of Partnership

About

National Capital Toyota opened Canberra's only independent Toyota dealership in January 2016. Since then, we have become the people's choice for Toyota in the ACT and Queanbeyan as the Best buying experience for the last 6 years in a row, but don't take our word for it, check our google reviews.

Located in Tuggeranong we offer a state of the art dealership with focus on employing local people who adhere to our purpose of "Delivering our guests an experience beyond all expectations". Customer satisfaction and team work is what we do! We take pride in our supportive work culture and believe the customer experience will continue our growth in the local market place.

Toyota Hilux and RAV4 models finished in the top 3 most sold cars of 2023 and with Toyota's Hybrid range growing in size and popularity, the Toyota brand has never been in more demand.

Toyota is Australia's favourite automotive manufacturer and we believe we are Canberra's favourite automotive retailer whether it is to buy your new vehicle, pre owned vehicle, have your vehicle serviced or purchase genuine parts and accessories.

In this our 40th year servicing the ACT and surrounding areas, we are proud of our affiliation with the Queanbeyan Tiger Football Club over the last 7 years and well into the future.

About

A state of the art indoor golf practice facility, that is membership-based and accessible 24/7. perfection and look for ways to better serve property owners.

The studio consists of three superior hitting practice bays, both equipped with industry-leading Trackman radar units, providing you with the next generation of golf data analysis.

The focus of the training facility is to provide access to a facility where you can practice and improve your golf at times that are convenient for your individual work/life schedule and allowing for all weather predicaments.

The 24/7 access along with app-based scheduling of the bays makes it ideal for the time-poor golfer, the golfer that does not have access to a driving range or flexibility to play golf every day.

The Studio is run by a fully qualified PGA professional, who will be providing members and non-members lessons and coaching. The Studio will also offer premium custom club fittings, repairs and have a selection of high-end shafts available for testing.

Along with the Track Man hitting bays, the Studio is equipped with an impressive 15sqm Well Putt putting area, available to members for use during their sessions at the Studio.

HELLENIC CLUB
Where Canberra Meets

Major Functions Partner - 1st Year of Partnership

About

The Hellenic Club opened for business on 24 February 1979. After many years of hard effort, the Greek Community had not only a place to meet but also the vehicle to showcase the Greek culture and cuisine to the wider ACT community.

In 2009, the Hellenic Club expanded opening its second location. The Hellenic Club in the City continues to thrive and provide another venue for the Greek and wider community of Canberra to dine and be entertained.

Since its establishment, the Hellenic Club has continually developed, offering the best club facilities and service in the Canberra region. The Club has also contributed enormous economic and social benefits to the ACT economy and has served as the bridge between the Greek and Australian cultures.

In fact, the Hellenic Club currently provides employment to over 200 people and contributes to worthwhile community projects and groups, charities and sport.

Today, the Hellenic Club is well-known for its amazing giveaways, fine dining, live entertainment, customer service and community spirit. The Club has become so much more than the community hall it was first planned to be.
